

Psi Chi Covid-19 Response Relief Fund Application

Available to all MA/PsyD students

Scholarship Amount: up to $200

Due date for Application: April 10, 2020

The Psi Chi Covid-19 Response Relief Fund has been created by the Psi Chi Executive Board to provide aid to students in need of funds in order to continue the pursuit of scholarly activities during this pandemic crisis.

To be eligible, students must demonstrate financial need as written in a short essay (250-500 words) submitted with this application.

Requests are submitted to Psi Chi staff advisor Amanda Ming at: aming@msp.edu. Applications are approved by Amanda Ming and kept confidential. Written requests will be destroyed or deleted once the funds have been distributed.

Attach the following in a short written request (250-500 words):

- description of the existing financial difficulties relating to the covid-19 pandemic;
- description of how the funds would be used (some examples: technology to support online learning, internet costs, books or class materials, ability to meet basic needs such as bills, food, rent);
- how having these funds will help with the continuation of academic scholarship;
- amount of loan requested (up to $200 maximum).

I certify that the information provided in this application is true. If approved, I agree to use these funds in a way that will help foster and continue my pursuit of academic scholarship.
