

Sidney Berkowitz Scholarship for Clinical Excellence (SBSCE)

Award: $1,000 applied to third semester tuition.

The Sidney Berkowitz Scholarship for Clinical Excellence was established in 2022 to honor Dr. Berkowitz, beloved former faculty member, esteemed clinician, and long-time supporter of the Michigan School of Psychology. Dr. Berkowitz freely gave of his time for guest lecturing on topics relevant to psychotherapy for many years following his retirement from MSP.

Eligibility Criteria:

- be in good academic standing in an MA or PsyD program;
- show excellence in clinical work as demonstrated by consistent ratings of 4 or higher in the faculty supervisor's evaluations of clinical training for Master of Arts students, 5 or higher for PsyD practicum students;
- demonstrate a commitment to clinical practice using humanistic values/principles,
- make effective use of supervisory meetings.

Core program faculty will determine the award recipients for their respective programs.

Application documents must be submitted to Denene Decker, Academic Services Coordinator: ddecker@msp.edu by March 14, 2023. A student may be awarded the scholarship one time only during their program. Faculty will determine the award recipient. The SBSCE will only be granted if there is a qualified applicant and the scholarship remains funded (supported by donations).

To apply (please print):

Name: _____

Degree Program/Year: _____ GPA: _____

Attach the following:

- A description of your clinical work (setting, clinical population(s), humanistic principles that guide your work) and ways in which you have achieved clinical excellence.
- A written recommendation from a faculty member

I certify that the information provided in this application is true and grant permission to the committee designated to determine scholarship awards access to my transcripts for review.

Student Signature

Date