F-1 STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES

A person admitted to the United States as an F-1 student must meet certain obligations in order to maintain legal status. Here is an overview of USCIS regulations as they relate to F-1 students at the Michigan School. The Michigan School of Psychology has an International Student Advisor/DSO in the Admissions or Registrar's Office who can assist you with questions or problems. However, it is your responsibility to know and adhere to all USCIS and MSP regulations.

Under current USCIS regulations, an F-1 student must do the following to maintain status:

1. Attend the school he or she was authorized to attend (the school that issued the student's I-20). The student must make normal progress towards completing the course of study, by completing studies before the expiration date on the I-20.
2. Carry a full course of study if the student is living in the United States. If the student is living in Canada and crossing the border to attend class, they can either be a full-time or part-time student. A border crosser must notify the DSO if their living location changes.
3. Apply to the DSO to continue from one educational level to another (e.g. from the master's program to the doctoral program) at the same school.
4. Students must notify the DSO when a name change occurs.
5. Remain in the U.S. no longer than 60 days after completing the full course of study, unless the student has followed procedures for applying for practical training, an extension or change of program, or school transfer.
5. Have a passport that is kept valid at all times, unless exempt from the passport requirement.
6. Not work in the United States, either on or off campus, unless specifically authorized to do so.
7. Report a change of address to the International Student Advisor/DSO within 10 days of the change.
8. Fully and truthfully disclose all information requested by USCIS.
9. Obey all federal and state laws.
10. Maintain valid health insurance at all times.

Information provided here should not be construed as legal advice. You may want to consult an immigration attorney to see how the law may apply in your situation. It is the student's responsibility to notify the DSO of any changes that affect his/her status.

I, _____, certify that I have read and understand the above statements.
