

Student Emergency Loan Fund (SELF) Application

Available to all MA/PsyD students

Loan Amounts: up to $1,000 (renewable)

The Student Emergency Loan Fund (SELF) was established in 2005 by an anonymous donor to provide immediate aid to students with an emergency financial situation who have exhausted other available financial resources.

To be eligible, students must demonstrate financial need.

Requests are submitted to the Director of Financial Aid & Development, Roger Maki-Schramm: rmaki-schramm@misp.edu. Advances against Direct Loan refunds are approved by the Director of Financial Aid. Applications with sources of repayment other than federal loans are approved by the President or Vice President.

Attach the following in a written request:

- description of the existing financial emergency;
- description of other funding efforts;
- amount of loan requested (up to $1,000 maximum);
- a repayment proposal – timeframes, amount of each payment, date to begin.

I certify that the information provided in this application is true and grant permission for a review of my transcripts and financial aid records to determine loan eligibility. If approved, I agree to repay these loan funds per the proposal in my attached request for funding.
