

JILL BENTON HUMANISTIC PSYCHOLOGY SCHOLARSHIP (JBHPS)

Award: $1,000 applied to tuition.

This scholarship honors Jill Benton, former MSP librarian and alum, and her commitment to humanistic psychology. The JBHPS supports a PsyD student who is committed to advancing the science and practice of humanistic psychology as demonstrated by excellence in scholarship.

All full-time PsyD students and students in full-time internships may apply. Eligibility criteria:

- Demonstration of a commitment to the values of humanistic psychology.
- Demonstration of a passion for learning.
- Excellence in scholarship.
- Advocacy for MSP via positive contributions to its community.

Application documents must be submitted to Roger Maki-Schramm, Director of Financial Aid & Donor Management: rmaki-schramm@msp.edu by March 14, 2026. A student may be awarded the scholarship one time only during their program. Faculty will determine award recipient. The JBHPS will only be granted if there is a qualified applicant.

To apply (please print):

Name: _____

Degree Program/Year: _____ GPA: _____

Attach the following:

- A one-two page essay describing why you should be chosen that includes:
  - 1) The impact this award may have on your education/career goals and how you demonstrate commitment to the values of humanistic psychology.
  - 2) A description of academic performance, including grades, positive evaluations, classroom attendance, and active participation in the MSP community.
  - 3) How your work in the area of humanistic psychology contributes to the advancement of MSP's mission.
- A current curriculum vita
- A written recommendation from a faculty member

I certify that the information provided in this application is true and grant permission to the committee designated to determine scholarship awards access to my transcripts for review.

_____
Student Signature

_____
Date